

EnerSys Amends Credit Agreement

July 6, 2006

READING, Pa., July 6 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- EnerSys (NYSE: ENS), the world's largest manufacturer, marketer and distributor of industrial batteries, today announced it successfully obtained an amendment to its senior secured Credit Agreement. The Company's lenders approved the elimination of the senior secured debt leverage ratio, while maintaining its total debt leverage ratio, and agreed to several minor technical changes.

"I am pleased with the ongoing support from our lender group and the continued confidence they show in our business by approving the amendment," said Michael T. Phillion, executive vice president and chief financial officer of EnerSys. "In addition to the improved operating flexibility, the elimination of the senior secured debt leverage ratio effectively increases our borrowing capacity by over $100 million, favorably positioning us to take advantage of attractive acquisition opportunities to further grow our business and add shareholder value."
